Policy:

It is the policy of the Board of Directors that the Maricopa County Special Health Care District shall bill only for services rendered, and all bills shall be prepared timely and in an appropriate format.

District staff, medical staff, and clinical providers must be thorough, accurate, and timely in completing any dictation, written or oral report, or other documentation necessary for prompt and accurate billing made to or for any payer or government agency.

District management and medical staff leadership are charged with the responsibility to develop and maintain processes that ensure the integrity of all billing.
